IN EDUCATION'S NAME

The Marion County Teachers' Association will hold its monthly meeting in the armory tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock. Besides the interesting program, an additional attraction will be the lecture of President John F. Forbes, of the Stetson University, Deland, who is an able and forceful speaker.

Not only are the teachers invited, but all their friends and the friends of education in general are cordially requested to lend their presence. A rare intellectual treat is in store for all and "the stranger within our gates" is also included in this invitation.

Let Ocala show her appreciation of this occasion. Attend the teachers' meeting at the armory tomorrow and hear Dr. Forbes' lecture.

IN OLDEN TIMES

People overlooked the importance of permanently beneficial effects and were satisfied with transient action; but now that it is known that Syrup of Figs will permanently overcome habitual constipation, well-informed people will not buy other laxatives, which act for a time, but finally injure the system. Buy the genuine, Manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co.

THE GIRLS WENT HOME

BROTHER AND HUSBAND HAD A PERSUASIVE WAY THAT WOULD NOT BE DENIED

Now the girls are sorry and deeply repentant. The girls in question are Mrs. Marie Kirk, the sixteen year old bride, and her cousin, Miss Anna Scott, of Palmetto and Pebble, respectively, who ran away from their homes and joined the Venetian Gondola Shows, an account of which was given in yesterday's paper. Yesterday afternoon Marie's husband and an aunt came up from Tampa and Lakeland and joined Mr. Scott, a brother of one of the girls, who had been here for several days trying vainly to persuade or force the girls to return home. As soon as the irate husband arrived it was seen that there was blood and determination in his eye, and the three set out to carry the girls home. They had able assistance from several Ocala people, among them J. H. Vereen, Marshal Crawford and others, and E. H. Mote, of Leesburg. The party waited on the girls at the Carlton House, and they positively refused to return home. Pleadings and threats seemed in vain. At this juncture some one of the party waited on Mr. Andrews, who, it is alleged, persuaded the girls to leave home, and notified him in no uncertain terms that he must accompany him to the girls and tell them that under no circumstances could they continue with the show, as he feared trouble, and his life was too sweet to be jeopardized by their presence. This he did, and the girls, seeing the last resort fail them, at last yielded and agreed to accompany their relatives home.

The reunited party sat up in the parlor of the Hendrix House till the southbound Seaboard Air Line train was due, when they went down, boarded it and went home. The girls seemed much relieved when the determination to go home had been made and seemed rather glad to go.

It is said that there was a little party arranged for the entertainment and edification of the man Andrews, and that he was to have been given an object lesson on the evils of enticing young ladies away from home, in such a manner as to prevent the desire from seizing him again.

A JAY FROM JAYSVILLE

Hoy's comedy company played "A Jay from Jaysville" at the opera house last night and were again favored with a good crowd. The performance was good, but did not take as well as the previous one. It had been produced before several times under a different name. The specialties were good and the entire performance was well applauded and everyone seemed to enjoy it. Nat Reiss, as a jay from Jaysville, was a big success and his clever work produced hearty laughter and applause. Alec Bowles, as Potato Bug Bill, very much a tramp, was a good character and his drunken hobnob work was very amusing. The bicycle trick riding and the comic juggling were good and proved to be interesting numbers. The orchestra was appreciated. The music, which continues through the play, was a pleasing feature.

DOWN TO BUSINESS AND GETTING CASES OUT OF THE WAY

The following business was transacted in the United States district court yesterday at the court house in this city:

Albert P. Smith, the little hunched negro who formerly worked around the post office, who was charged with having in his possession or passing counterfeit money, was tried and acquitted. H. L. Anderson was his attorney.

The grand jury returned indictments against the following, all colored and all indicted for selling liquor without a license: Mose Baker, E. R. Laws, Lot Dorsey, Bill (alias William) Williams, John M. Standley and N. A. Harrell.

No true bills were found in the following cases and the defendants ordered released: John M. Starke of Lake Weir, and William J. Smith. Mose Barker was tried and acquitted. John B. Gaines was his attorney.

Writs were issued for Charles and Richard Robinson, defaulting witnesses.

George W. Ferguson was arraigned for contempt of court, being drunk and disorderly in the presence of the court.

The case of E. R. Laws was called in the afternoon and not pressed.
